An Advanced Two-Day Conference on

Wireless Telecommunications

Emerging business and legal issues for distribution and content

November 8 & 9, 2007
Seattle, Washington
Red Lion Hotel

Credits: WA CLE 10.25 (call about others)
Quick when/where: 8:30 a.m., 1415 Fifth Avenue
The wireless broadband revolution is finally reaching consumers with Internet access products, voice services and specialized content and devices. Hundreds of companies are involved in building the services, acquiring spectrum, constructing systems or developing content and devices.

This is your opportunity to interact with and learn from transactional, regulatory and corporate lawyers, as well as investment bankers and industry consultants as they address the legal, business and regulatory issues for this rapidly expanding industry.

~ Program Co-Chairs: Scott Morris, Esq. and Daniel M. Waggoner, Esq.
